Live Hashtag Rally
Wednesdays
9-11pm ET

Through the end of February we are having hashtag rallies hosted at PatriotJournalist.com

Steps to get started:

- 1. If you do not have a twitter account, first go to <http://twitter.com> and create one. Look through the rest of this document before proceeding on your computer to get a feel for the flow of events.

This is a social network and hacking is not unknown. Do NOT create your account with a simple password. At a minimum use 8 characters in length with a combination that includes upper and lower characters, numbers, and symbols (@#$%^ etc)

- 2. Log in to twitter in your browser. When running the hashtag rally it is best to have as few windows and tabs open as possible due to memory usage.
- 3. Go to <http://patriotjournalist.com/> and create an account. You can log in with twitter to accomplish this.
- >> See the next page for a view of the Welcome Page<<
- 4. If you are not yet logged into <http://patriotjournalist.com/> do so now. Again, that can be done with twitter.

Thank You for Your Interest in the Patriot Journalist Network!

The Patriot Journalist Network is a team of conservatives working together to support the conservative cause through the use of Twitter. More than just a hashtag(#) or intent to participate, each team member has given permission by opting in to the PatriotJournalist Twitter application to post tweets on their behalf.

Our positive approach seeks out elected officials who are doing the right thing – and then we applaud them publicly on Twitter as a TEAM. The PatriotJournalist Twitter application regularly launches "Twitter Bombs" that posts shoutouts on behalf of our team members automatically – whether the user is online or not.

Awesome tweets for the conservative cause from some awesome patriots. All you need to do is click a tweet button.

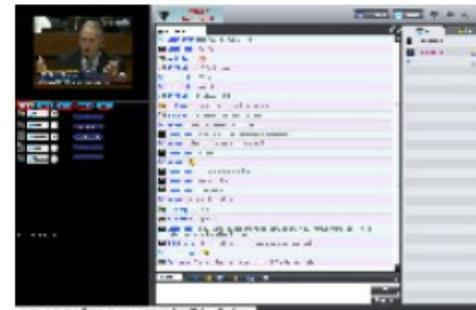

During live events, gather in the live chat room to light up Twitter with RT's for those who use featured tweet buttons. We also got interesting YouTube videos and live content.

Our venue is open 24/7 to serve the conservative public. Stop in any time!

When the rally starts, a window in the upper right opens like below. 50 tweets have been preselected. The objective is to click the Tweet button on each of the five lines and send that tweet. That is 5 tweets, and you need to keep track as you can lose count of where you are.

Note the [1]. That means you are on the first set of 5. Now click the [2] and do the same for it and the rest of the ten buttons.

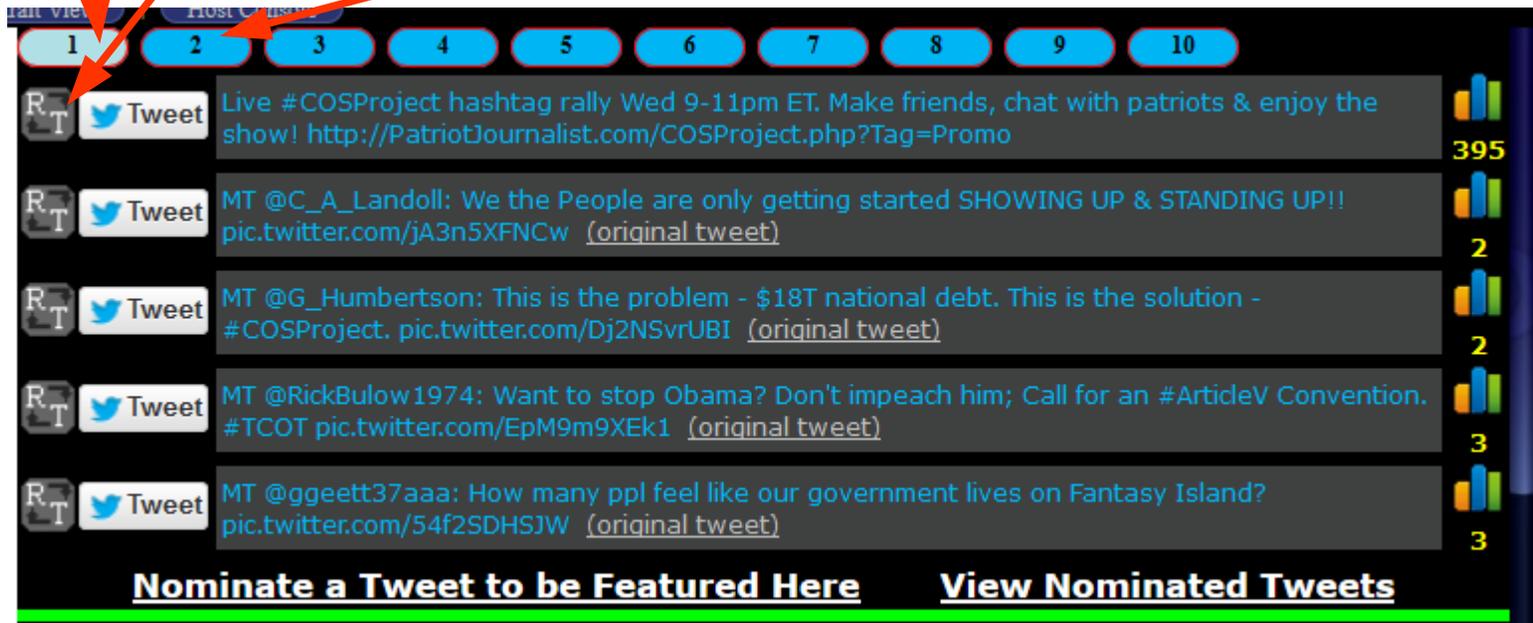

The screenshot shows a Twitter interface with a navigation bar at the top containing buttons numbered 1 through 10. An orange arrow points from the text above to button 2. Below the navigation bar, there are five tweets, each with a 'Retweet' (R_T) icon and a 'Tweet' button. The tweets are:

- Tweet 1: Live #COSProject hashtag rally Wed 9-11pm ET. Make friends, chat with patriots & enjoy the show! <http://PatriotJournalist.com/COSProject.php?Tag=Promo> (395 retweets)
- Tweet 2: MT @C_A_Landoll: We the People are only getting started SHOWING UP & STANDING UP!! pic.twitter.com/jA3n5XFNCw (original tweet) (2 retweets)
- Tweet 3: MT @G_Humbertson: This is the problem - $18T national debt. This is the solution - #COSProject. pic.twitter.com/Dj2NSvrUBI (original tweet) (2 retweets)
- Tweet 4: MT @RickBulow1974: Want to stop Obama? Don't impeach him; Call for an #ArticleV Convention. #TCOT pic.twitter.com/EpM9m9XEK1 (original tweet) (3 retweets)
- Tweet 5: MT @ggeett37aaa: How many ppl feel like our government lives on Fantasy Island? pic.twitter.com/54f2SDHSJW (original tweet) (3 retweets)

At the bottom of the interface, there are two links: Nominate a Tweet to be Featured Here and View Nominated Tweets.

Now, having finished the job of tweeting the first 50 tweets, go back to [1]. Then click the [RT] button to the left.. That opens twitter to a list of the tweets everyone made of that tweet to this point. Then click the re-tweet button in twitter (circular arrows) and re-tweet every one except your own (twitter won't let you do that). Do that till all are done. Then close that twitter window and move to the next [RT] button. Do all 5 lines, then move back to [2] etc and do all 10 pages.

Note: The steps on this page pay off better if you do not start until later in the Rally since the number of tweets will be low at the beginning.

Final hints:

You can do the [RT] buttons somewhat later. OR, go to twitter and search for: #COSProject, and then tweet each one working down through the list. If it appears there are none left, pull down on the list to make twitter refresh and it will find more.

Also, at the top of twitter there is [Top/All]. Click on All to see them all before you start.

This is a good time to follow folks. They will presumably all be COS supporters so just follow any you haven't all ready. They will likely follow back.
